

Following on the success of the Sociolinguistics Summer School at the University of Edinburgh in 2009 and 2010, we would like to invite you to the third Summer School of Sociolinguistics at The University of Glasgow from 4th to 9th July 2011.

This week-long Summer School for PhD level students will focus on hands-on workshops led by academics in the field, student conference style presentations/posters and round-table discussions. The School's speakers and themes are:

Ethnicity, Contact and Change:	Dr Devyani Sharma
Perception and Identities in Interaction:	Dr Erez Levon
Sociophonetics and Indexicality:	Dr Lauren Hall-Lew
Statistical Analysis of Speech Data:	Dr Daniel Johnson
Language and the Media:	Dr Jane Stuart-Smith

For full programme and more details please visit our webpage:

<http://www.gla.ac.uk/departments/englishlanguage/gulp/events/sociolinguisticssummerschool2011/>

All prospective student participants are asked to submit a 500 word abstract for potential inclusion in presentations/posters. The abstract should be mailed to the address below, together with name, institution, and year of study:

sociosummerschool2011@gmail.com

The submission deadline is 10th March 2011

The applicants will receive the notification of acceptance by 15th March 2010.

Selection of student presentations will be on the basis of

1. their academic quality
2. potential benefit of the workshop for the participant
3. fit with the themes of the summer school.

For advice on travel/accommodation, please see our website or contact the organizers at the address above.

Please note that we anticipate that the Summer School will be free of charge. However, due to budget constraints we may have to charge a nominal fee to cover costs. This will not exceed £100 per participant and we very much hope it will be nearer the zero mark!

We are looking forward to seeing you in Glasgow this July!

Kind regards,

The Sociolinguistics Summer School organisers:
Sophie Holmes, Cassie Smith-Christmas, Dr Jennifer Smith (University of Glasgow)
