

Symposium: “Corporate Governance – Historical Perspectives”.

17 March 2008, Adam Smith Building, room T206 (706)

Hosted by the Centre for Business History in Scotland

PROGRAMME

Monday 17 March

14.00 – 15.00

Presentations:
(15-20 minutes)

Naomi Lamoreaux: “Scylla and Charybdis? Some Historical Reflections on the Two Basic Problems of Corporate Governance”.

John Turner: “Rule Britannia!: British Stock Market Returns, 1825-1870”.

Bob Morris: “Who needs corporate governance ? ; reflections on the family, trust and the effective management of capital and other factors of production, 1780-1914”. (Reference to the case studies in “Men, Women and Property in England, 1780-1870”, Cambridge University Press, 2005).

15.00 – 16.00

Discussion