

LESSONS LEARNED FROM EU ENLARGEMENT:
THE CASE OF KALININGRAD

Round Table Discussion

Randolph Hall,
University of Glasgow,

23 October 2007

Final Programme

10.30 - 11.00 – Registration and coffee.

11.00 - 11.45 – First Session. Dynamics of Kaliningrad's domestic development.

Introduction :

Dr David Smith, Department of Central and East European Studies, University of Glasgow
HE Vygaudas Usackas, Lithuanian Ambassador to the UK

Panel

Dr Raimundas Lopata, Director, Institute of International Relations and Political Science, University of Vilnius
Dr Solomon Ginzburg, Member, Kaliningrad Regional Duma
Dr Natalia Smorodinskaya, Institute of Economics, Russian Academy of Sciences
Mr Martin Dewhirst, Slavonic Languages, University of Glasgow

11.45 - 12.30 – General Discussion.

12.30 - 14.00 – Buffet lunch. Speech by Mr Vladimir Kafidov, Deputy, Kaliningrad Regional Duma

14.00 - 15.30 – Second Session. Kaliningrad's relations with the outside world: Baltic sea neighbours and the EU

Panel

Mr Stephen Dewar, Independent Consultant, Founder of the Association of International Experts on the Development of the Kaliningrad Region
Ms Anke Schmidt-Felzmann, Department of Politics, University of Glasgow
Dr Ingmar Oldberg, Deputy Director of Research at the Swedish Defence Research Agency

14.45 - 15.30 – Discussion and summing up .