

MSc Behavioural Science

ORIENTATION WEEK
DESCRIPTION	DATE/LOCATION/FORMAT
Programme Induction Meet with Kristin (Senior Programme Administrator) and Carol (Student Development Coach)	Tuesday 16th September 12:45-13:30 5 The Square: Room 330 Gloag Lecture Theatre
Pre-sessional Course Information The pre-semester course ECON5141 in Applied Microeconomics summarises the most fundamental topics in applied microeconomics and the main econometric methods used for interpreting the results that test microeconomic theories.	Monday 15th September 10:30-12:30 5 The Square: Room 330 Gloag Lecture Theatre Tuesday 16th September 10:30-12:30 5 The Square: Room 330 Gloag Lecture Theatre Wednesday 17th September 10:30-12:30 5 The Square: Room 330 Gloag Lecture Theatre Thursday 18th September 10:30-12:30 Rankine Building: Room 107 Lecture Theatre Friday 19th September 10:30-12:30 5 The Square: Room 330 Gloag Lecture Theatre
University welcome events To complement your programme induction, the University will run a range of events during Welcome Week , Freshers' Week and International Welcome	Various days/times Check the links and sign up for events of interest.

Week. This will include social events both online and on campus.
---	--

MICRO-CREDENTIALS (to be completed online within one month of joining us)
DESCRIPTION	DATE/LOCATION/FORMAT
Academic Navigation (30 minutes): The Postgraduate programme at the Adam Smith Business School may be different from what you're used to. In this engaging course, we will introduce you to essential study skills, academic support services, academic integrity practices, and valuable library resources. You will gain a comprehensive understanding of academic expectations and be well-prepared for the teaching and assessment methods used at the Business School.	You should complete these sessions within one month of joining the School. Sessions can be found on the Postgraduate Student Information Point which will be available to you from Induction Week.
Careers and Community (30 minutes): Maximise your one-year programme by learning about careers and employability support at the Business School, exploring clubs and societies, and registering for the Adam Smith Skills Award. This extracurricular programme will help you develop your skills, engage with the student community, and plan for your future.
Wellbeing and Student Support (30 minutes): Gain the knowledge and tools needed to prioritise your well-being, access support services effectively, and thrive academically and personally. We are dedicated to your success and are here to support you every step of the way.

Information for new students

Important information for new students can be found at <https://www.gla.ac.uk/myglasgow/students/new/>