How to read the Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy

This is the Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy.

Cover

Please read this Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy carefully to ensure that the cover meets your requirements and that the details are correct, noting any limitations or exclusions which apply. Cover applies throughout the United Kingdom except where we state otherwise in this document. We have designed this booklet to help you understand the cover provided. On many pages, to assist you, we have divided the text under the following headings:

"What is covered"

This gives information on the cover provided.

"What is not covered"

This text is printed opposite "What is covered" to draw your attention to what is not covered.

"What is the most we will pay"

This text is also printed opposite "What is covered" and indicates the maximum amount we will pay for the cover described.

Sections of the Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy which apply to you

The sections which apply to you are shown on the certificate of insurance.

About the policy

Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy - our contract with the policyholder

This Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy evidences the contract the policyholder has made with us. We cover the insured person during the period of insurance in accordance with the terms set out in the Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy in return for payment of the premium made by the policyholder.

The Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy wording, certificate of insurance and any endorsements are all part of this policy and should be read together. They show which sections of the policy are in force and contain details of the cover. All the documents should be read carefully, paying particular attention to the general exclusions and general conditions which apply to the whole policy.

The Howden Group Contents Insurance Policy sets out all the circumstances in which an insured person can make a claim.

No promotional material or advice booklets form part of the policy.

Applicable law

This policy is governed by the law that applies to where the insured person resides in the United Kingdom. If there is a disagreement about which law applies, English law will apply in which case the insured person or the policyholder agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in England and Wales. Unless agreed otherwise, we will communicate in English.

 - faulty design, materials or workmanship
 - computer viruses – including malware or ransomware
 - ionising radiation, radioactivity, nuclear fuel, nuclear waste or equipment
 - war, revolution or any similar event
 - pollution or contamination which was:
 - the result of a deliberate act
 - expected and not the result of a sudden, unexpected and identifiable incident.
- any claim arising directly or indirectly from an act of terrorism. In this case, an act of terrorism means preparing, threatening to use or actually using any item capable of producing biological, chemical or nuclear pollution or contamination
 - vehicles and craft
 - the operation of any item contrary to the manufacturer's instructions.

Important information

General conditions which apply to the whole policy

1. Duty of the insured person

On discovery of any event which may give rise to a claim, the insured person must without delay:

- a. tell us about any insurance related incidents of loss, damage (such as fire or water damage, theft or an accident) or liability as soon as possible whether or not they give rise to a claim. The insured person must give us all the information and help we may need
- b. report any loss, theft, attempted theft or malicious damage to the police immediately or as soon as is reasonably possible
- c. supply free of expense to us all such proofs, information and other evidence relating to the claim as we may require.

We cannot consider any claim unless notified to us in accordance with the terms of this condition.

2. Claims procedure

- a. Every letter, claim, writ, summons and process must be forwarded to us immediately on receipt. Written notice must also be given to us immediately the insured person has knowledge of any prosecution or inquest in connection with any event for which there may be liability under this policy. No admission, offer, promise, payment or indemnity shall be made or given by or on behalf of the insured person without our written consent
- b. We shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the insured person the defence or settlement of any claim or to prosecute in the name of the insured person for our own benefit any claim and will have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings and in the settlement of any claim. The insured person must give all assistance as we may reasonably require
- c. We will be entitled at any time in our name or the name of the insured person to take steps for the recovery of any part of the property insured or for securing reimbursement in respect of any loss or damage and the insured person will give us all information and assistance we may reasonably require. Upon payment of any claim under this policy (other than for repair) any part of the property insured in respect of which payment is made will belong to us subject to the right of the insured person to reclaim it upon repayment to us of the amount paid
- d. We are entitled in the event of any loss or damage to property to enter the building where the loss or damage has occurred and to take and keep possession of all such property and to deal with the salvage in a reasonable manner. No property may be abandoned to us
- e. In the event of a claim being made, arising out of one incident which falls under more than one cover section, the highest excess shall apply to the whole claim
- f. All claims must be reported to us promptly, together with any supporting evidence we may require, within a reasonable amount of time of the incident occurring.

Important information

General conditions which apply to the whole policy

3. Reasonable care

The insured person must at all times:

- a. take all reasonable steps to prevent accident, loss and damage
- b. ensure the locks on all external doors and accessible windows to the term time address are operative whenever the term time address is unoccupied
- c. maintain all property insured in a sound condition and allow us to have reasonable access to it when required

4. Cancellation clause

We may cancel this policy where there is a valid reason for doing so by giving the policyholder seven days' notice in writing to their last known address. We will refund any premium which may be due in accordance with the terms of this condition. Valid reasons may include but are not limited to:

- a change of risk under this policy which we are unable to insure
- where the policyholder or insured person fails to respond to requests from us for further information or documentation
- where the policyholder or insured person have given incorrect information and fail to provide clarification when requested
- the use of threatening or abusive behaviour or language, or intimidation or bullying of our staff or suppliers, by the policyholder, an insured person or any person acting on their behalf
- if we cancel this policy we will return a proportionate refund of the premium that has been paid in respect of the period of cover left unused, unless we are cancelling due to fraud or a claim, or an incident likely to give rise to a claim, has occurred.

5. Arbitration

If any difference arises as to the amount being paid under this policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference will be referred to an arbitrator to be appointed by the parties in accordance with any statutory provisions for the time being in force. Where any difference is by this condition to be referred to arbitration, the making of any award shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against us.

6. Fraud

If any claim under this policy is in any respect fraudulent or misrepresented in amount or if any fraudulent means or device is used by the insured person or by any person acting on behalf of the insured person to obtain any benefit under this policy, we will not pay any part of the claim and all cover provided for the insured person by this policy will be forfeited.

Misrepresentation or non-disclosure of information by the policyholder entitles us to decline or reduce claims and ultimately may lead to the policy being invalidated in the case of deliberate or reckless misrepresentation or attempted fraud.

7. Evidence of value

For any individual item of jewellery valued at more than £600, the insured person must provide evidence of value in the event of loss or damage to that item. Acceptable evidence of value may be in the form of:

- a. the original purchase receipt, or
- b. a written valuation dated no more than five years old.

Failure to produce adequate evidence of value may affect the insured person's ability to claim for loss or damage to the item(s).

Important information

How to claim

Your claim will be handled by Howden, your insurer, or another agent acting on behalf of the Insurer. Claims contact information is included in your policy documents and on our website www.howdenbroking.com/uk-en/endsleigh-claims

1. To make a claim, the insured person should:

a. download the Howden for Students app at <https://students.howdengroup.com/registration> or submit a claims form at Zurich Insurance Claims Portal <https://propertyclaims.zurich.co.uk/index.html> as soon as possible. Or contact us on 0800 923 4042 Opening hours: Monday-Friday, 9am-5pm

b. send us any:

- receipts, bills, valuations or repair estimates as appropriate for all claims for loss or damage
- full details of any accident or injury and early prognosis for personal accident claims

c. give full details within a reasonable amount of time of the incident together with any supporting evidence we may require.

All claims for theft or loss must be reported to the police.

2. Some of the cover (for example personal liability) is provided to cover the insured person against claims made by others. If the insured person is held responsible for loss, damage or injury it is essential that they:

a. tell us immediately and provide details in writing as soon as possible

b. send us immediately any correspondence writ summons or other legal documents served on them. The insured person must not admit liability or reply to any correspondence without our authority. We will then deal with all matters relating to that claim on behalf of the insured person.

3. In some cases we may arrange either for a member of our staff or an independent chartered loss adjuster to discuss the claim with the insured person. This is not always necessary but when it is we will advise the insured person of the name and address of the loss adjuster and monitor progress of the claim.

Risk transfer

Howden acts as an agent for the insurer for the collection and refund of premiums and the payment of claims. This means that premiums are treated as being received by the insurer when cleared funds are received by Howden. Any premium refunds are treated as received by the policyholder when it is actually paid. Claims monies are treated as received by you when it is actually paid. There are occasions where such transactions are restricted (for example, to receiving premiums only) and Howden will tell the policyholder if this is the case.

Data protection

Howden is committed to being transparent about how we handle data and protect privacy. Full details can be found within our privacy policy can be found at www.howdenbroking.com/uk-en/privacy-data-protection-policy

Important information

Zurich's Data Protection Statement

Zurich takes the privacy and security of your personal information seriously. We collect, use and share your personal information so that we can provide policies and services that meet your insurance needs, in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

The type of personal information we will collect includes: basic personal information (i.e. name, address and date of birth), occupation and financial details, health and family information, claims and convictions information and where you have requested other individuals be included in the arrangement, personal information about those individuals.

We and our selected third parties will only collect and use personal information (i) where the processing is necessary in connection with providing a quotation and/or contract of insurance; (ii) to meet our legal or regulatory obligations; (iii) where you have provided the appropriate consent; (iv) for our 'legitimate interests'.

It is in our legitimate interests to collect personal information as it provides us with the information that we need to provide our services more effectively including providing information about our products and services. We will always ensure that we keep the amount of information collected and the extent of any processing to the absolute minimum to meet this legitimate interest.

A full copy of our data protection statement can be viewed www.zurich.co.uk/dataprotection

How you can contact us

If you have any questions or queries about how we use your data, or require a paper copy of the statement, you can contact us via gbz.general.data.protection@uk.zurich.com or alternatively contact our Data Protection Officer at Zurich Insurance, Unity Place, 1 Carfax Close, Swindon, SN1 1AP.

Fraud prevention and detection

In order to prevent and detect fraud we may at any time:

- check your personal data against counter fraud systems
- use your information to search against various publicly available and third party resources
- use industry fraud tools including undertaking credit searches and to review your claims history
- share information about you with other organisations including but not limited to the police, the Insurance Fraud Bureau (IFB), other insurers and other interested parties.

If you provide false or inaccurate information and fraud is identified, the matter will be investigated and appropriate action taken. This may result in your case being referred to the Insurance Fraud Enforcement Department (IFED) or other police forces and fraud prevention agencies. You may face fines or criminal prosecution. In addition, Zurich may register your name on the Insurance Fraud Register, an industry-wide fraud database.

Claims history

Under the conditions of this policy you must tell us when you become aware of any incident that could give rise to a claim under this policy, whether or not it is your intention to claim.

When you tell us about an incident or claim, we may pass information to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register (CUE), where the data is controlled by the Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB), and other relevant databases.

We and other insurers may search these databases when you apply for insurance, in the event of any incident or claim or at time of renewal to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim. This helps to check information provided and prevent fraudulent claims.
