

Turner Kirk Centre
for Spatial Reasoning

2026 Spatial Cognition conference hosted by the Turner Kirk Centre for Spatial Reasoning at the University of Glasgow is 25th to 28th August 2026
Delegate Information: travel; venue; around Glasgow

PLANNING YOUR TRIP

Travel: Essential guide to getting to Glasgow by air, train, sea, roads here

Visa information: ETAs are now mandatory for travel to the UK. The best overview, where visitors can find official information and apply is on these UK government pages here.

Another helpful link, which details key deadlines for groups of visitors (by country), can be accessed here.

Each individual visitor is responsible for ensuring they have their own correct authorisation to enter the UK. As such, we are not able to provide any individual advice, but would encourage you to direct queries to the official links above, which also include the option for visitors to web chat with the appropriate authority.

Accommodation: There are a range of hotels convenient for the University of Glasgow. Hotels in the city centre are also conveniently connect by the SPT Subway. Please refer to the hotel map

CONFERENCE VENUE

Glasgow University Union: <https://www.guu.co.uk/>

Campus Map: <https://www.gla.ac.uk/explore/maps/>

Getting there:

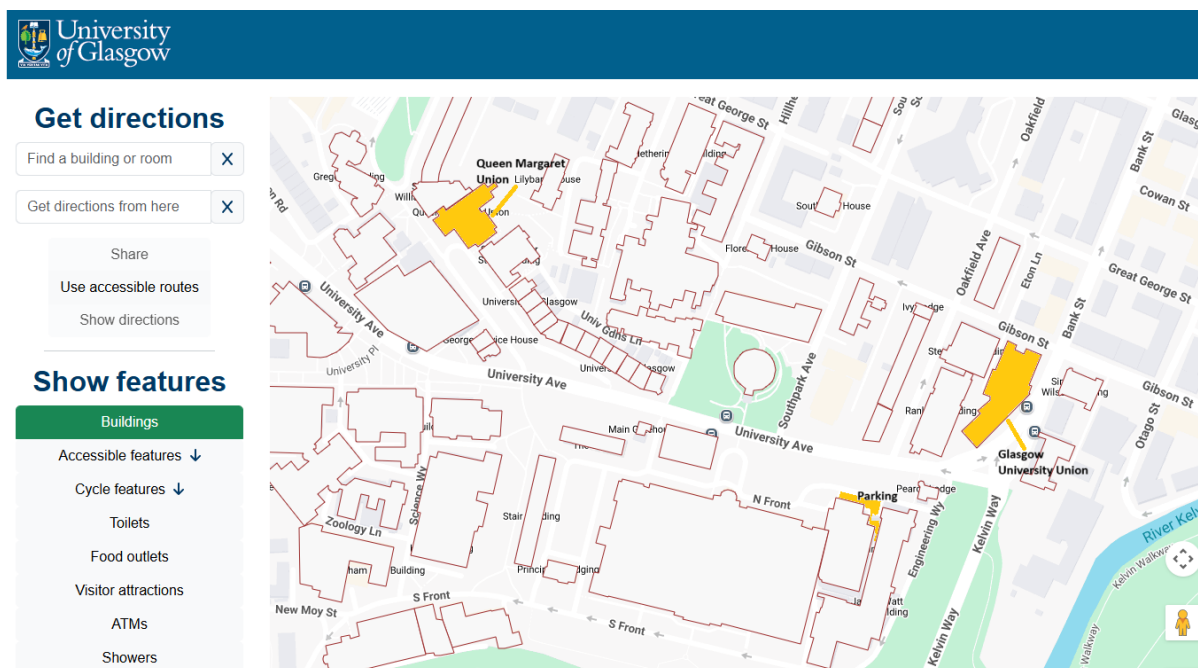

Buses: Routes 4, 4A and 15 run through the main campus from the city centre and other routes serve nearby Dumbarton Road, Great Western Road and Byres Road

First Bus journey planner

Subway: Hillhead and Kelvinbridge subway stations connect the city centre to the University: Travel by subway and ticketing options.

Local trains: The nearest rail station is Partick, about one mile west of the University. It has an interchange with the subway and with bus services on Dumbarton Road

Scotrail journey planner

VISITING GLASGOW - GENERAL INFORMATION

Getting Around: All you need to know about getting around Glasgow on foot, bike, public or private transport can be found here

Things to Do: A list of local attractions to visit in your spare time can be found here.

Useful to Know: What to expect in Glasgow including climate, currency, tipping, safety, health, shopping, and driving can be found here.

Spatial Cognition Conference UofG Team:

Glasgow delegate enquiries: Claire Johnston & Anna Doyle

Glasgow Conference Chairs: Jack Parkinson & Quintin Cutts

Email: spatialreasoning@glasgow.ac.uk