

PUBPOL1010

Social and Public Policy 1A: Foundations of Welfare

- Explore key social problems such as unemployment, poverty, housing and ill health, and how they have been addressed by public policy.
- Examine the historical origins and evolution of the welfare state to understand and engage with debates concerning the national and UK governments' contemporary role in welfare.

SCAN ME

A stylized illustration of a statue of a man on a horse, set against a sunset sky. The statue is dark, and the horse is also dark. The man is wearing a red and white striped traffic cone on his head. The background is a mix of blue, orange, and yellow. The entire image is framed by a blue wavy line on the left side.

PUBPOL1011

Social and Public Policy 1B: Understanding Glasgow in a Globalised World

- Discover Glasgow's social problems and urban challenges and how these are tackled by public policy, including comparisons with cities in other parts of the world.
- Explore issues ranging from poverty and inequality, housing and community relations to gangs and the 'divided city', and consider how policy tries to address them, and what we know about the difference policy makes.

SCAN ME

PUBPOL2010

Social and Public Policy 2A: Perspectives on Public Policy

- Investigate major influential ideas and diverse perspectives on welfare and public policy.
- Challenge assumptions about the aims of policy and the functions of welfare by examining diverse ideological and political agendas in an international context.

SCAN ME

PUBPOL2011

Social and Public Policy 2B: Policy, Politics and Power

- Explore the politics and power dynamics of policy making and implementation.
- Examine how selected social problems are constructed and why some are high on the policy making agenda whilst others are not.

SCAN ME