

A full-length bronze statue of Joseph Stalin, standing with his hands in his pockets, wearing a military-style tunic and boots. The statue is set against a wall of reddish-brown marble tiles.

CEES1015

CEES 1A: Central and Eastern Europe in the Age of Stalin

- Explore the political, economic, social and cultural history of Central and Eastern Europe from the end of the First World War until the death of Stalin in 1953.
- Analyse the political, social, economic and cultural heritage of the region with a view to comprehending the reality of regional development, which will be relevant to further education and future employment.

SCAN ME

A map of Eastern Europe and Russia, showing major cities like Moscow, Kyiv, and Minsk, and countries like Ukraine, Russia, and Poland. The map is partially obscured by a green wavy line on the left and a red banner on the right.

CEES1016

CEES 1B: Communism and its Collapse

- Explore the fate of Soviet-controlled Central and Eastern Europe after the death of Stalin from 1953 until the collapse of the USSR in 1991.
- Investigate the reaction against Stalin's policies, the attempts at reform of the system, the Cold War's impact on CEE, and the gradual re-assertion of national and cultural challenges to Moscow's rule.

SCAN ME

CEES2010

CEES 2A: Post-communist Russia and the Former Soviet Union

- Understand how the collapse of the USSR reshaped Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, the Baltic states, the Caucasus, and Central Asia.
- Explore the lasting political, economic, and cultural legacies of Soviet rule across the region.
- Develop comparative skills to analyse different societies and political systems.
- Explain how post-Soviet states have navigated their place in wider Europe and the global system.

SCAN ME

CEES2011

CEES 2B: Central and South-East Europe after Communism

- Explore aspects of political, economic, social and cultural change in Central and South-East Europe following the collapse of communism.
- Analyse the transition from the one-party political system and centrally planned economy to the multi-party system and market economy.
- Investigate the different ways in which processes have affected the region and its inhabitants.

SCAN ME