

Additional Information

Scholarship recipients will be expected to:

- Achieve satisfactory academic progression throughout their programme.
- Continue training and competing at an appropriate performance level.
- Represent the University of Glasgow in BUCS competitions and other agreed competitions where eligible.
- Engage positively with the University's Performance Sport Programme.
- Uphold the Student Contract and act as ambassadors for both their sport and the University of Glasgow.

The University reserves the right to withdraw scholarship funding where these conditions are not met. Further information can be found in the University of Glasgow Performance Athlete Agreement, detailed below. Successful applicants will be required to agree to the terms of this agreement as a condition of receiving and retaining their scholarship.

University of Glasgow Performance Athlete Agreement

Congratulations on being selected for a performance squad within your club at University of Glasgow. This document details the support you can expect as a Performance Athlete and sets out what is expected of you when you agree to take up your place in your squad.

As a performance squad athlete you will receive the following support:

- Access to at least 2 coached training sessions per week during term time
- S&C support including coached sessions in Studio 1 or PowerPlay, program access via TeamBuildr, fitness testing and tracking
- Priority access to best available facilities for home fixtures
- Access to Sports Rehabilitation appointments free of charge and other group workshops like nutrition, psychology and other performance sport topics

- Assistance to approaching academic flexibility requests
- Named on the Performance Squad list on the UofG Sport website

As a performance athlete you are expected to:

- Attend the minimum agreed training sessions across the season including scheduled S&C sessions as determined by your Head of Sport or Head Coach at the beginning of the season. (Unless evidencing clashes with University lectures or placements, or for other circumstances like illness or injury.) This is set at 80% for your squad for the 2026/27 season.
- Be on time for training, team meetings, pre-match preparation, departures for matches and other agreed squad events and ensure that if you are going to be late this is communicated appropriately in advance of your lateness.
- Ensure availability for all possible fixtures throughout the whole competitive season. This includes during vacation periods and during potential playoff and knockout finals. Exams, placements and other essential degree commitments are an exception.
- Ensure availability for pre-season training as agreed between your club and lead coaches. This usually involves return to training up to 4 weeks prior to welcome week.
- Ensure that unavailability is communicated well in advance with your coach or club lead to ensure suitable time to prepare
- Complete UKAD Compete Clean Training+ online e-learning and abide at all times with UKAD and WADA anti-doping Guidance
- Abide by your Club's Code of Conduct and be mindful that you represent your club and the University at all times and especially when training or competing for your club
- Communicate any concerns you may have through the appropriate channels; your lead coach, your captain, the GUSA President, Sport Development Manager or Performance Sport Manager in a timely and appropriate manner
- Ensure that you prepare for training, fixtures or matches as appropriate for a performance athlete in regard to nutrition, alcohol consumption, and sleep.
- Note that failure to comply with the above commitments can result in deselection from your performance squad as determined by your coaches, club captains and performance sport manager
