

TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY LITERACY IN EDUCATION:

WHAT IS IT? HOW CAN IT BE ACHIEVED?

21st March 2012

Dr Evelyn Arizpe, School of Education, University of Glasgow

Ms Hilary Bombart, Development Officer, English and Literacy, Education Scotland

Professor Raymond Boyle, Co-Director of the Media Management Programme, Centre for Cultural Policy Research, University of Glasgow

Mr Gordon Brown, Scottish Qualification Authority SQA

Dr Katherine Champion, Researcher, Centre for Cultural Policy Research, University of Glasgow

Dr Beth Dickson, School of Education, University of Glasgow

Mr Scott Donaldson, Portfolio Manager, Creative Scotland

Dr Gillian Doyle, Co-Director of the Media Management Programme, Centre for Cultural Policy Research, University of Glasgow

Mrs Susan Ellis, Reader in Literacy and Language Education School of Education, University of Strathclyde

Mr David Griffith, Screenwriter

Professor Paul Harris, Head of School, Greys School of Art

Mr Ken Hay, Chief Executive, Centre for the Moving Image

Dr George Head, Senior Lecturer (Social Justice Place and Lifelong Education), University of Glasgow

Professor Brian Hudson, School of Education, University of Dundee

Mr Matthew Lee, Head of Learning, New Media and Outreach, BBC Scotland

Professor Sonia Livingstone, Head of Department of Media and Communications, London School of Economics and Political Science

Ms Vicki Nash, Director, Ofcom Scotland

Ms Joan Parr, Portfolio Manager, Creative Scotland

Dr John Potter, Senior Lecturer, Culture, Communications and Media, University of London

Professor Philip Schlesinger, Director, Centre for Cultural Policy Research, University of Glasgow

Dr Melanie Selfe, Lecturer, Centre for Cultural Policy Research, University of Glasgow

Ms Margaret Tierney, Project Manager, Scottish Qualification Authority (SQA)