1. Introduction

Appointed by Court, the Equality and Diversity Strategy Committee (EDSC) role is to consider the University’s strategic planning and policy development matters relating to equality, diversity and inclusion (EDI); to advise and make recommendations to the University’s Court, Senate, People & Organisational Development Committee, the Education Policy and Strategy Committee (EdPSC), Student Experience Committee (SEC) and the Senior Management Group, as appropriate. In addition, the EDSC will work in co-operation with other University committees and working groups, as required.

The Committee aims to challenge the University as an institution in terms of our practice, approach and development of equality and diversity, and in particular where progress is limited or, in support of under-represented or disadvantaged individuals/groups. It will do this by bringing together staff and students with interest and expertise in the area to discuss, advise on and take forward all aspects of policy and its implementation.

The EDSC shall report via:

- People & Organisational Development Committee to Court for staffing matters
- EdPSC to Senate for student educational matters
- SEC to Senate for student welfare matters

2. Committee remit

The Committee shall:

- Oversee the delivery and implementation of all University policies which reflect legislative requirements with respect to equality and diversity
- Consider relevant changes in legislation and recommend new policy developments accordingly
- Consider the outcomes from monitoring and evaluation and recommend new policy developments accordingly
- Progress the Equality Outcomes as required in the Scottish Government Public Sector Duties
- Ensure publication of the University’s annual equality and diversity monitoring report
- Monitor the admissions and progress of students and career progress of staff in relation to protected characteristics
- Review the membership and remit annually and to co-opt additional representative members to the Committee as may be required

The committee will be mindful of resource implications in its deliberations.
3. Scheme of Delegation

The following details the delegated authority for the EDSC and shows how it is placed in the overall University Scheme of Delegation with escalation to Senate and/or People & Organisational Development Committee:

The EDSC may invite others to attend meetings on an ad hoc basis where this would help to expedite its work. In addition, the Committee may co-opt individuals with specific expertise as members in order to deal with specialist items of business, but not to fulfil a representative function. In either case the individuals may come from within or outwith the University.

5. Membership Composition

It is agreed the principle of 40% of either gender should be regarded as the minimum for gender balance on EDSC (not including Clerk).

Composition (as at 1st meeting of the academic year 2023-2024): Male 39% Female 61%

6. Substitutions and Quorum

Substitutions may be made with prior notice given to the clerk. There must be a minimum of 7 from the core group (excluding clerk) in attendance for decisions or approvals. In the event of a consensus not being reached, the Chair will escalate to Senate or People & Organisational Development Committee as appropriate.

7. Committee Member Responsibilities

Each Committee member has a responsibility to:

- Champion, at all times, the University commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion
- Provide insight, scrutiny and challenge to new and revised EDI policies
- Openly and constructively challenge where change initiatives do not meet our EDI outcomes or meets key regulatory criteria
- Maintain subject matter knowledge in EDI regulations and trends across HEI
- Identify, assess and mitigate EDI risk at strategic University level as well as operational, programme and project levels
- Take ownership for specific actions and risks in the EDSC Action and Risk Logs. All actions and risks must have a committee member as overall owner
- Activity and behaviour should embody the University’s values

8. Conflict of Interest

The EDSC will follow the UofG procedure for the management of any conflicts. The procedure defines declaration of conflicts as a standard agenda item at the start of the meeting, the maintenance of a register of conflicts, and a process for managing all conflicts which are declared.
9. Format and cadence

The EDSC shall meet 3 times per year for 2 hours and call extra-ordinary meetings as required.
