

5th International Symposium Disorders of Sex Development

11th-13th June 2015, Ghent, Belgium

www.i-dsd.org

Important Dates:

Registration Opens:	1 st October 2014
Abstract Submission Open	1 st Feb 2015
Abstract Deadline:	15 th March 2015
Early Bird Registration:	15 th April 2015

What is the aim of the Symposium?

- Increase research quality especially that crosses geographical boundaries
- Improve the network of professionals involved in the care of people with a DSD
- Increase the use of the I-DSD Registry

The Symposium should be of interest to:

- Health care staff
- Clinical and basic scientists
- Parent & patient support groups

Plenary & Parallel Sessions

- 10 Years After Chicago - A Look To The Future
- The Complexities Of Phenotypic Assessment
- Care Across The Age Span
- The Gonad & Its Long-term Outcome
- The Biology Of Sex Development
- Working Group For Clinical Psychology
- Support Groups For Patients & Parents

Other Activities

- Opportunity to present original research
- Poster and oral communication prizes
- Guest lecture 'the sexual health and rights of women'
- Social dinner & Excursion

I-DSD Training Workshop for New Investigators

- Friday 11th June (9am-12) (Separate registration)
- Introduction to I-DSD Registry for research
- Improve communications with patients
- Free to COST Training School participants

COST Training School – DSDnet

- 8th-10th June 2015, Ghent, Belgium
- 30 trainee places
- See www.DSDnet.eu for further details

EACCME accreditation:

- Accredited for 15 hours CME

Further Information:

Jillian Bryce
I-DSD Project Manager
School of Medicine
University of Glasgow,
Yorkhill, Glasgow G3 8SJ, UK
Tel: +44-141-201 0509
Jillian.Bryce@glasgow.ac.uk

Discounted Registration

- I-DSD Registry users
- Early bird registrants
- Concessions

Travel Grants

- Available to eligible developing countries and patient representatives

On-line Registration

idsd2015.eventbrite.co.uk

Scientific Programme

www.gla.ac.uk/idsdsymposium

University of Glasgow

