

Dr Morag Macdonald Simpson

General Council Assessor

Graduated LLB (hons) from Glasgow University in 1968 and called to the Bar of England and Wales by Inner Temple in 1974. Employed by the Post Office, working in BT, Central Headquarters Secretariat, and Girobank. Company Secretary of the Post Office and member of executive management board, 1985-94. Resigned in 1994 to return to university to read philosophy at Kings College London, came back to Scotland in 1997 and undertook a PhD in mediaeval philosophy at Glasgow University, graduating in 2002.

Non- executive board member, The Industry and Parliament Trust 1986-94

Council member, St George's Hospital Medical School and member of finance and disciplinary committees, 1993 - 97.

Chairman, the Adamson Trust until 2011.

Trustee and Chairman, Glasgow City Heritage Trust 2007-15.

Chairman Scottish Commission for Learning Disability.

Appointed CBE 1993.