

Elspeth Orcharton

Co-opted Member

Elspeth is a graduate of the University and chartered accountant who spent the early part of her career as a tax adviser in professional practice, including as a partner in Ernst & Young LLP (now EY). After a career break and obtaining a degree in psychology, Elspeth joined the staff of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland, her main role being Director of Tax, responsible for tax policy development and liaison with governments in Westminster and Holyrood.

In 2015 Elspeth was appointed a Specialist Adviser to the House of Lords Economic Affairs Committee Finance Bill Sub-Committee. Elspeth also lectures on tax matters on post qualifying education courses.