

GEOGRAPHICAL/POLITICAL UNITS

The abbreviations below indicate the countries in which members are or were located. (Where no country is indicated, this indicates that the address was not known.)

In certain cases the name of a country may not correspond to its present-day counterpart. For example, up until 1918, Austria-Hungary ('auh') included what is now Austria, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, and parts of Poland, Rumania, the former Soviet Union and Yugoslavia.
