

Gavin Stewart

Co-opted Member

Currently the Asset Allocation director of Lloyds Bank Insurance business (Scottish Widows) overseeing the investment policy and strategy for all the customer and shareholder funds of the business. A qualified actuary with a career in Insurance and Investment Management including being Chief Executive of Ignis Asset Management (previously branded Resolution) for over 5 years. Has senior experience of most functional areas of a business including marketing, strategy, product development, IT, Finance and Customer Service. Currently is vice chair of Oxfam GB, having been a trustee for almost five years.