

Dr Simon Kennedy

Senate Assessor

I was elected as a Senate Assessor to Court in 2017. I have been a member of Senate since 2011 and on Council of Senate since 2014. I also served a term on the Senate Business Committee. From 2014 I was a Senate Assessor for Student conduct and since January 2016 I have been the Senior Senate Assessor for Student Conduct. I am a member of the College of Medical, Veterinary and Life Sciences and since 2017 I have been based within the School of Life Sciences where I coordinate several course and act as Level 4 coordinator for the Pharmacology Degree. I act as external examiner for Queen's University, Belfast. I originally trained as a pharmacist and completed my PhD in 1998 at Strathclyde University. After research posts in Paris and Strathclyde University, I was appointed to my current post at Glasgow in 2006. My research interests lie in cardiovascular pharmacology with a focus on vascular pathophysiology. I have published around 60 peer-reviewed publications in this area. I am a member of the British Pharmacological Society and a member of their Meetings Committee. I have editorial appointments on several high profile journal in my research area.
