

June Milligan

Co-opted Member

June draws her experience and insight from a wide range of leadership roles in the public service, including as a Governor in long-term and maximum security prisons, as a diplomat representing the UK to the European institutions, and as a Ministerial policy adviser and Principal Private Secretary.

Until 2015, June served as a Board Member of the devolved Government in Wales, with responsibilities as Director General and Accounting Officer for Local Government and Communities, and for leading and championing Equality and Diversity.

June is an Equality and Human Rights Commissioner, and a Civil Service Commissioner.

June considers it a privilege to serve the University of Glasgow as a co-opted member of the University Court, having graduated three times from the University: MA, PhD and BD. June has also completed Advanced Management studies at INSEAD.

June chairs the Human Resources and Remuneration Committees of the University.
