UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW

TRANSNATIONAL CRIME, JUSTICE & SECURITY
MSc

WORLD CHANGERS WELCOME
TRANSNATIONAL CRIME, JUSTICE & SECURITY
MSc: 12 months full-time; 24 months part-time

This programme considers pressing contemporary global issues from a criminological perspective, including organised crime, trafficking, terrorism and environmental crime.

What will I get from this programme?
• You will gain access to a wide range of potential careers and further academic pathways related to understanding international crime and developing strategies and policy for its prevention.
• You will be taught by leading scholars from the Scottish Centre for Crime & Justice Research, a centre of excellence for criminology in the UK.
• You will benefit from cutting edge teaching, responding to current affairs and world events.
• There will be a number of guest lectures, presentations and seminars throughout the year, with high-calibre speakers from the UK and abroad.
• There will be opportunities to connect with non academic partners for your dissertation work.

Why Glasgow
Sociology at Glasgow has been ranked 5th in the UK for 2019 by the Complete University Guide.

By studying with us you will learn from academics considered leaders in their fields and gain vital practical knowledge for shaping places, strengthening communities and improving policy making.

You will be part of the School of Social and Political Sciences, a vibrant community of dynamic, innovative and diverse staff and students working across a broad range of social science disciplines.

Employability support
Our dedicated Social Sciences Employability Officer and Work-related Learning Co-ordinator can help you reflect on your learning, and develop the skills and attributes which will help you succeed in the job market. Support is provided through a number of programmes and activities including employability workshops, alumni talks, the Graduate Skills Programme and the Professional Skills Programme, as well as work-related learning activities such as collaborative dissertations, consultation projects, and practitioner talks (both staff and student led).
