Advice/Practice/Feedback for Postgraduate students

glasgow.ac.uk/LEADS/students
Would you like some focused time for your writing? This summer LEADS is offering a dissertation writing suite consisting of writing incubators, writing boot camps and writing drop-in clinics. These sessions provide you with a quiet and structured space to research and write. Tutors are on hand to guide the sessions and answer any queries. No need to register. Just drop in with your laptop and research/writing tasks.

FREE COFFEE AND BISCUITS PROVIDED

Writing Incubators
During these sessions you will have the opportunity to discuss your research and writing tasks, to write for a focused period of time and ask the tutor any related questions.
