1. English Language Qualification

   - If you used a SELT (English language test) as an English language qualification to meet the conditions of your offer for study at University of Glasgow, your CAS will state this:

     Your CAS will confirm what evidence is required (if any) of your English language ability. Copy the details from your CAS in the English Language Qualification section of the online visa application form.

2. If your CAS states you have an academic qualification equivalent to a UK degree that was studied in a majority English speaking country (including the UK) please indicate this on the application form.

   Your CAS would either:
   - state the academic documents used as evidence of this in the “English Language qualification” and “Evidence Used to Obtain Offer” sections, or
   - state that Higher Education Institution (HEI) has made own assessment” in the English Language section and state the academic document used in the “Evidence Used to Obtain Offer” section

3. If you are a national of a “majority English speaking country”, the online application form will detect this and will not ask you to provide evidence of your English Language level. Your CAS will also state this:

4. If your CAS states “Higher Education Institution (HEI) sponsor has made own assessment” in the English Language section, you would indicate this on the visa application form:
