CASC EQUIPMENT TECHNICIAN

Person Specification

Knowledge, Experience and Skill Set Required

- Technical qualification or experience in a relevant clinical support role.
- Be comfortable working in a cadaveric environment and alongside cadaveric material or instruments which have been in contact with cadavers.
- Work hours flexibly around the needs of each course which will include early mornings, evenings and weekends.
- Physically able to deal with routine regular lifting of deliveries and moving heavy equipment.
- Awareness of Health & Safety requirements.
- A working knowledge of AV system, HD monitors etc.
- Ability to liaise with medical professionals and scope out technical requirements.
- Experience of negotiating with suppliers on pricing.
- Good communication skills and willingness to cooperate as part of a multi-disciplinary team, but comfortable working on own initiative.
- Excellent customer and service delivery skills
- Ability to work under minimum supervision and prioritise own work load to meet demands of the service

The following would be desirable:

- Experience of working in a cadaveric environment.
- A working knowledge of the care and use of a range of medical equipment including:
  - Laparoscopic equipment and instrumentation
  - Suction
  - CO2
  - Harmonic generators
  - Diathermy
  - Compressed air
  - Surgical instruments
  - Power tools