

The USyd-Glasgow Partnership Collaboration Award (PCA) Successful Applicants from the 2018-19 Funding Call

22 applications were submitted to the USyd-Glasgow Partnership Collaboration Award (PCA) 2018-19 funding call, with proposals representing the rich variety of research taking place across the University.

Title	UoG Chief Investigator	Subject Area
Smart publics: the social, design and governance implications of repurposing street furniture and pay phones with smart benches and smart kiosks	Prof Bridgette Wessels	School of Social & Political Sciences CoSS
Advancing energy justice through economic democracy	Prof Robert McMaster	Adam Smith Business School CoSS
Exploring Mars atom-by-atom	Prof Martin Lee	School of Geographical & Earth Sciences CoSE
Characterisation of the entry requirements of virulent systemic isolates of feline calicivirus that emerged recently in Australian cats	Prof Margaret Hosie	Institute of Infection, Immunity & Inflammation MVLS
Performing a distant heritage: Scottish music in early Australian collections, its materials and its practices	Dr David McGuinness	School of Culture & Creative Arts CoA
Housing and What Works? From Placebo Policies to International Knowledge Exchange	Prof Kenneth Gibb	School of Social & Political Sciences CoSS