

'Beyond Development: Local Visions of Global Poverty'

Round Table 2

4 May, 14.30 - 15.30, Pearce Institute

Key Questions

- 1) What are your experiences of engaging with representations of poverty?
- 2) What do you see as the issues around aestheticizing poverty, or seeing the aesthetics of poverty as political?
- 3) What do you see as the problems with the ways poverty is often represented in society?

Participants: Luna Marán, Keyti, Stuart Platt, Tommaso Ranfagni, Viviana Checchia

Chaired by: Julia McClure