Producers' Own NSS Marketing Materials

Providers can create their own internal promotional materials for the National Student Survey (NSS), including creating their own artwork. However, restrictions apply.

If you have any questions regarding these guidelines, please contact the NSS Helpline at nss@ipsos.com.

For more information, please refer to the NSS 2020 Good Practice Guide.

Do

- Encourage students to voice their opinion: This includes what they liked and did not like about their student experience.
- Encourage students to complete the survey online: Providers should direct students to the survey website; www.thestudentsurvey.com.
- Keep promotions in line with your provider’s chosen start week: Please note that regardless of your provider’s chosen start week, ALL eligible students can complete the survey from 6 January onwards.
- State the purpose of the NSS and its target audience of mainly final year undergraduates.
- Include the NSS logo on all promotional materials.
- Include the relevant funders logos: The Office for Students, Department for the Economy Northern Ireland, Higher Education Funding Council Wales or Scottish Funding Council and Ipsos MORI logos must be included in all promotional materials.

Don’t

- Embed NSS marketing activity in broader provider promotional activities, for example ‘Pride’ and ‘I Love’ campaigns: There must be a clear division between marketing campaigns to ensure all promotion of the NSS is neutral. This includes ‘you said, we did’ campaigns, where it must be clear that particular changes came about from the NSS rather than from internal campaigns.
- Combine the NSS with other surveys being undertaken at the provider: The NSS must be promoted independently. Students must not be led to confuse the NSS with other surveys, whether internal or external, being undertaken at the provider.
- Include material that may inappropriately influence students’ responses: Please refer to the 2020 Good Practice Guide for more information.
- Make any references to commercial brands.
- Include any defamatory, offensive, political or unlawful content.

If you require help or need clarification of any of these items, please speak to the main NSS contact at your provider or contact the NSS teams at the OfS at nss@officeforstudents.org.uk or Ipsos MORI at nss@ipsos.com.
