Philosophy of Perception, Colour and Epistemology Within 14th and 15th January 2020

Perception, Colour & the Epistemology Within

14th and 15th January 2020
Bridie Library, Glasgow University Union

Presenters:
Keith Allen (York)
Bill Brewer (KCL)
Derek Brown (Glasgow)
Yasmina Jraissati (American Univ Beirut)
Fiona Macpherson (Glasgow)
Jessie Munton (Cambridge)
Susana Siegel (Harvard)
Sebastian Watzl (Oslo)
Keith Wilson (Oslo)

Contact
a.alcazar-sanchez.1@research.gla.ac.uk
r.ros-morales.1@research.gla.ac.uk

Photo by Ke Kurnai on Unsplash
Programme

Tuesday 14th January 2020

9:30-10:50   Jessie Munton, Cambridge University ('How to see invisible objects')
10:50-11:15  Coffee Break
11:15-12:40  Yasmina Jraissati, American University of Beirut (TBA)
12:40-13:40  Lunch
13:40-15:00  Susana Siegel, Harvard University ('Are There Norms of Attention?')
15:00-15:15  Short Break
15:15-16:40  Bill Brewer, Kings College London ('Perception of Continued Existence Unperceived')
16:40-17:00  Coffee Break
17:00-18:20  Keith Wilson, Oslo University ('The Auditory Field')

Wednesday 15th January 2020

9:30-10:50   Sebastian Waltz, Oslo University ('Salience plays a rational role')
10:50-11:15  Coffee Break
11:15-12:40  Keith Allen, University of York ('What is it like to be colour blind?')
12:40-13:40  Lunch
13:40-15:00  Fiona Macpherson, University of Glasgow (TBA)
15:00-15:15  Short Break
15:15-16:40  Derek Brown, University of Glasgow ('The philosophy of colour constancy')