ANCIENT HISTORY

Ancient history involves the study of the history and culture of Greece, Rome and the wider Mediterranean between the 8th century BC and the 5th century AD with the opportunity to learn Latin and ancient Greek if you wish.

Why choose Glasgow?
You will have the opportunity to visit archaeological sites and museums in Italy and Greece as part of your programme.

Entry requirements
Our programme webpages advertise the most up-to-date detail on our entry requirements for 2021-22 entry at glasgow.ac.uk/undergraduate. Due to the impact that the COVID-19 pandemic has had on grades certified in 2020, we are currently assessing the flexibility that we can offer in the consideration of academic entry requirements. We will publish any changes on our webpages.

Our international links
If you progress to Honours you will have the opportunity to spend at least three weeks (usually during the summer vacation after third year) visiting archaeological sites and museums in Italy and Greece. Financial support for this visit is available to all Single Honours students. You may also spend your third year studying at universities in North America, Australia, New Zealand or Europe.

Career prospects
In recent years our graduates have found employment as teachers, civil servants, administrators, librarians, archivists and experts in museums and galleries.

CLASSICS

Classics involves the study of the literature, history, art and material culture of ancient Greece and Rome. Study of Latin and/or Greek language is possible at any level.

Note
You do not require a knowledge of the Greek and Latin languages.
GREEK

Greek involves the study of classical Greek language and literature and ancient Greek civilisation.

MA (Hons) (Q700): Four years

Joint Honours available, see glasgow.ac.uk/ug/greek.

Note
You do not require previous knowledge of Greek.

You will read (depending on options chosen) Homer and other Greek poets, Athenian tragedies and comedies, orators and historians, and the philosopher Plato. You will also learn about Greek political and social history, philosophy, religion and art. If you have a good A-level pass in the subject, you may be able to start Greek at Level 2.

Year 1
You will be provided with a strong foundation of grammar and vocabulary leading to the reading of simple passages of genuine ancient Greek. You will learn to read elementary texts in Greek and to translate Greek into English.

You will also study other subjects in years 1 and 2.

Year 2
The focus is on developing translation skills, of both prepared and unprepared texts. There is also consolidation of grammatical foundations. We introduce continuous literary texts, typically from oratory, drama, historiography and epic. You will also develop your critical skills through commentary and essay work.

Years 3 and 4
If you progress to Honours (years 3 and 4) you will choose options from a wide range of topics and study texts and genres in detail. Courses currently include Historiography, Epic, Comedy, Tragedy, Oratory and Lyric poetry.

There is also the opportunity within the Honours programme to start or continue the study of Latin.

LATIN

Latin involves the study of the Latin language and literature, and Roman civilisation.

MA (Hons) (Q600): Four years

Joint Honours available, see glasgow.ac.uk/ug/latin.

Note
You do not require previous knowledge of Latin.

The level at which you enter depends on whether you have taken Latin before. If you are a complete beginner, or have studied some Latin, you will enter our Level 1 class.

Year 1
You will be provided with a strong foundation of grammar and vocabulary, leading to the reading of simple passages of genuine Latin. You will learn to read elementary texts in Latin and to translate Latin into English.

You will also study other subjects in years 1 and 2.

Year 2
You will have the opportunity to increase your knowledge of vocabulary and grammar, enabling you to translate passages of literary Latin into English. You will read works by a range of authors, and study literary and social contexts as well as language and style, developing your critical skills, so that you may write well-argued and researched essays.

Years 3 and 4
If you progress to Honours (years 3 and 4) you will choose from a wide range of topics and study texts and genres in detail. Courses currently include Historiography, Epic, Epic, Fiction, Drama, Satire and Oratory.

There is also the opportunity to start or continue the study of Greek.
