HISTORY OF ART

History of art seeks to understand how and why paintings, sculptures, buildings and works of design in a variety of media come to look the way they do.

MA (Hons) (V350): Four years

Joint Honours available, see glasgow.ac.uk/historyofart.

Entry requirements

Our programme webpages advertise the most up-to-date detail on our entry requirements for 2021-22 entry at glasgow.ac.uk/undergraduate. Due to the impact that the COVID-19 pandemic has had on grades certified in 2020, we are currently assessing the flexibility that we can offer in the consideration of academic entry requirements. We will publish any changes on our webpages.

Why choose Glasgow?

You will benefit from the extensive resources of the University Library and Archives, and The Hunterian, the University’s museum and art gallery, which feature the world-famous Hunter, Whistler and Mackintosh collections. You will also have access to Kelvin Hall, the University and city’s innovative collections-access centre.

In your third-year vacation you will receive a grant to assist you to visit museums, galleries and buildings relevant to your studies.

Our international links

We have an agreement with Bonn University Institute for Art History in Germany, enabling suitably qualified students to spend their third year there, and we have a strategic partnership with the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC, USA.

Career prospects

This degree can lead to careers in publishing, journalism, teaching and librarianship, museums, galleries, the heritage sector, and art dealing and auction houses. Examples of graduate destinations include a Getty Collections Management Internship in the USA, and curatorial or administrative posts at Dulwich Picture Gallery, Handel House and the Design and Artists Collecting Society.

How to apply

For full-time study you must apply through the Universities & Colleges Admissions Service (UCAS). See ucas.com.
