THE FORMATION OF THE HEART: GROWING IN FAITH AS A CATHOLIC HEADTEACHER

Raymond Friel

MONDAY 11TH JANUARY
7-8 PM

Raymond Friel has worked in Catholic education for the last thirty years, as an English teacher, senior leader, a headteacher for 14 years, and most recently as the CEO of a multi academy trust of 11 school in Westminster Diocese. He is the author of a number of books on Catholic education, including How to Survive in Leadership in a Catholic School and Gospel Values for Catholic Schools, both available from Redemptorist Publications. He is married to Janet, an artist and maker, and they have three sons, some of whom have left home. They live in Somerset.

LEADERSHIP AND CREATIVITY

Mark Millar MBE

TUESDAY 26TH JANUARY
7-8PM

Mark Millar is a New York Times bestselling author, Hollywood producer and now President of his Millarworld division at Netflix in Los Angeles where his wife Lucy operates as CEO of their team. In 2000, Marvel hired Millar as part of a new team to revitalise their comic-book line. He launched his new X-Men book at number one with Ultimate X-Men, revamping The Avengers next and shattering his own numbers with The Ultimates before creating the Marvel Civil War storyline in 2006, which remains Marvel's most financially successful event of the 21st century and their best-selling graphic novel of all time. His Superman book, Red Son, is the highest-selling Superman graphic novel in history and was adapted as an animated movie in 2020. Wanted was his first book under the Millarworld banner, a huge publishing hit that spawned the 2008 movie, starring Angelina Jolie. Netflix bought Millarworld in 2017 and hired Mark and his wife Lucy to act as President and CEO of their Millarworld line and to help develop their comic-books into big budget original movies, shows and animated series. Mark was born in Coatbridge, Scotland. He is the youngest of six children and married to Lucy Millar, CEO of Netflix's Millarworld Division. He has three daughters.

BEING CHRISTIAN IN POLITICS

Baroness Maeve Sherlock

MONDAY 8TH FEBRUARY
7-8PM

Maeve Sherlock is a life peer and serves in the House of Lords as the Shadow Minister for the Department of Work & Pensions. Before entering the Lords in 2010, Maeve spent most of her career leading charities (most recently the British Refugee Council) though she also worked as a special adviser to Gordon Brown when he was Chancellor of the Exchequer. In the deep and distant past, Maeve was the President of the National Union of Students. Maeve has held various non-executive roles including chairing the charity Chapel Street and serving as a Commissioner of the Equality and Human Rights Commission. Maeve is a Church of England priest and serves as a curate at St Nic's Church in the City of Durham, where she lives.
