MSc in Gender History

→ Specialist instruction in gendered analyses of the past. Topics include feminism, sexualities, race, intersectionality, masculinities, trans approaches and patriarchy.

→ Membership of an internationally renowned research centre, engaged in collaborative research with institutions around the world.

→ A programme of events including research seminars, reading groups, a knowledge exchange workshop and an annual public lecture in global gender history.

| Individual supervision from world-leading scholars in the history of gender and sexualities. | Close ties with Glasgow’s world-class museums, galleries and libraries. | Research skills and methods equipping you for positions in heritage, education and third sector organisations. |

Contact tanya.cheadle@glasgow.ac.uk for more details

Apply via https://www.gla.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/genderhistory/

The University of Glasgow, Charity Number SCO04401