

University
of Glasgow

MSc in Gender History

<https://search.creativecommons.org/photos/b73e8e78-61a5-43a0-a147-c0ee4c54bfbf>

- Specialist instruction in gendered analyses of the past. Topics include feminism, sexualities, race, intersectionality, masculinities, trans approaches and patriarchy.
- Membership of an internationally renowned research centre, engaged in collaborative research with institutions around the world.
- A programme of events including research seminars, reading groups, a knowledge exchange workshop and an annual public lecture in global gender history.

Individual supervision from world-leading scholars in the history of gender and sexualities.

Close ties with Glasgow's
world-class museums,
galleries and libraries.

Research skills and methods equipping you for positions in heritage, education and third sector organisations.

Contact tanya.cheadle@glasgow.ac.uk for more details

Apply via <https://www.gla.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/genderhistory/>

The University of Glasgow, Charity Number SCO04401