

Centre for Scottish and Celtic Studies | Ionad Eòlas na h-Alba is na Ceiltis

Seminar Series, 2014-15, Semester 1

TUESDAYS, 5.30pm

ROOM 202, 3 UNIVERSITY GARDENS (unless marked with *)

Seminars marked with ♦ are part of the 'Scotland and Europe' series convened by Dr Martin Macgregor and Dr Steven Reid.

- ♦30 September Alexander Brodie, 'Mutual receptivities: Scotland and France during the Enlightenment'. Wine will be served after this seminar to launch the semester's seminar series.
- 7 October Roibeard Ó Maolalaigh, 'Prince Louis Lucien Bonaparte and his Gaelic Interests'
- ♦14 October Matt McDowell, 'Scottish football and Scandinavia, 1898-1914: the future of "European" popular culture?'
- 21 October Details forthcoming.
- ♦28 October David Stewart, 'The "European question" in post-war Scottish politics'
- 4 November Database of Scottish Hagiotoponyms [DOSH] launch
- ♦11 November Amy Eberlin and Morvern French, 'Scotland and the Flemish Peoples Project: Analysing International interactions in the Middle Ages'
- ♦18 November Esther Meijers, 'William Carstares in the Netherlands: The Making of a Moderate Mind'
- 25 November Alan McNiven, title tbc. This seminar is organised in conjunction with Onomastication, the onomastics reading group.
- ♦2 December Aonghas MacCoinnich, 'Plantation in the Hebrides: the Dutch in Stornoway, 1628-31'
- *9 December Aonghas MacCoinnich, title tbc. PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE WILL BE AN ALTERNATIVE LOCATION FOR THIS LECTURE ANNOUNCED NEARER THE TIME. This is Celtic and Gaelic's annual Matheson Lecture.

ALL WELCOME!

Any questions? Contact the Convener: Dr Geraldine Parsons, geraldine.parsons@glasgow.ac.uk