SPECIFIC ASSESSMENT

Please indicate your assessment of the thesis by selecting Yes/No as appropriate. Any explanation of your assessment should be noted under 'detailed comments'.

The thesis
Is an original work making a significant contribution to knowledge or understanding in the field of study.
Shows adequate knowledge of the field of study and relevant literature.
Shows the exercise of critical judgement with regard to both the candidate's work and that of other scholars in the same general field.
Contains material which presents a unified body of work such as could reasonably be achieved on the basis of three years postgraduate study and research.
Is satisfactory in its literary presentation, gives full and adequate references and has a coherent structure understandable to a scholar in the same field with regard to intentions, background methods and conclusion.
Contains material which may form the basis for a publication.
