Welcome to #TeamUofG

We are delighted that you are joining #TeamUofG at the University of Glasgow School of Interdisciplinary Studies, Dumfries Campus.

Classes start on 20th September, and our Induction Timetable starts on 13th September.

Coronavirus (Covid-19) Guidelines

Our campus is open and services and facilities are operating, with appropriate safeguards in place. We have some guidelines we’d like you to follow when on campus:

- If you are quarantining (due to travel restrictions, Government guidelines, or suspected Covid-19 symptoms) do not come on to campus under any circumstances.

- If you feel unwell, please don’t come on to campus.
  - If you need any assistance with finding where to get tested in Dumfries, please contact our Student Support Services.

- Wash your hands regularly to protect yourself and others. Please use the hand sanitising stations provided when entering and leaving the buildings on campus.

- It is University policy that face coverings must be worn when moving around indoors, including in libraries, study spaces and classrooms and outside in congested areas (unless you are exempt). We are constantly reviewing our guidelines in line with Scottish Government guidance.

- Although the Scottish Government removed the requirement for physical distancing on 9th August, we will be maintaining one meter distancing in teaching rooms for semester one.

We look forward to welcoming you to campus, and seeing you all very soon!
