Privacy Notice for LFD at Home Testing: Scottish HEIs

Background
The Scottish Government/ NHS Test and Protect, in partnership with the UK Department of Health and Social Care, Local Authorities and the NHS Scotland, is responsible for the overall delivery of COVID-19 Lateral Flow Device Testing (LFD) of staff and students in Scottish HEIs. The testing of asymptomatic people can support education settings to identify positive cases, break chains of transmission and reduce risks in settings.

[The organisation will need to add any information or process where they collect data in order that their processes are fully covered]

Scope of this privacy notice
This privacy notice covers the processing of personal data of staff and students by HEIs, the Department of Health and Social Care, NHS National Services Scotland (NSS) and Public Health Scotland (PHS).

This privacy notice provides you with information about how your personal data will be collected and used in connection with COVID-19 Lateral Flow Device (LFD) Testing. It covers the collection and use of your personal data.

As part of this testing, different organisations may require a different level of information about your LFD data, including the Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC) and HEIs. Please refer to the relevant privacy notices if you want to know more about the uses of your personal data by other organisations. Every organisation involved in this data processing is independently responsible for complying with the applicable data protection legislation.

For further privacy information refer to:

- Use of your data for COVID-19 Testing | Information Governance (scot.nhs.uk)
- Coronavirus (COVID-19): Testing in Scotland | NHS inform
- How the NHS handles your personal health information | NHS inform
- Your HEI and Local Authority (Council) privacy notices and websites
- DHSC Privacy Notice

Who am I giving my personal data to?
If you decide to participate in this LFD process, you will need to submit the results of your self-administered Covid-19 lateral flow device tests through the DHSC LFD self-test online reporting portal. DHSC, in partnership with the Scottish Government, is the data controller in relation to this data processing and you can find more information here.

For individuals based in Scotland, in line with mandatory notifiable disease reporting regulations and the public tasks of NHS National Services Scotland (NSS) and Public Health Scotland, LFD data submitted through the online registration portal will flow through the National Pathology Exchange (NPEx) (a data processor for DHSC) into NSS, who safely and securely store the provided data for future use for public health purposes. Public Health Scotland (PHS) also has access to this data to perform their public functions.
Scottish Government, Local Authorities, HEIs, NHS NSS and PHS are data controllers for the below purposes.

What is the purpose of processing my personal data?
Participating in the LFD programme is voluntary. The data collected is necessary to enable the administration of the Covid-19 test directly to you without relying on a test centre. It also enables the involved parties to perform their public duties in managing the Covid-19 public health outbreak as indicated in the table below.

As indicated in the table below, each of the organisations involved, play a different role in this process; in partnership, they will process your personal data for the below purposes:

- to perform their public duties and functions (for more details refer to Table 2 Legal basis),
- to administer the processing of your LFD results,
- to enable contact tracing,
- to share the test outcome with other parties involved in this process, such as local Health Boards so they can provide you with appropriate advice and support.

Public Health Scotland (PHS)

Responsible for performing their statutory public functions and tasks, i.e., research, statistics and management of outbreaks. Decides on analytical methods and reporting in its role as an independent official statistics producer. Yes, on a need-to-know basis only

The Common Services Agency (NHS National Services Scotland - NHS NSS)

Responsible for:

- hosting and administering the secure database on NHS secure servers which receives the LFD data
- linking data to the Test and Protect Case Management System (CMS) for initiating contact tracing on positive results
- linking data to the NSS Data Hub for national reporting of aggregated and anonymised results
- providing feedback on incident reporting and outbreaks
- linking LFD data to medical records

Yes, on a need-to-know basis only

What categories of personal data will be collected and processed?
The following personal data will be collected directly from you (or your parent/legal guardian):

- Identity Information:
  - Last name
  - First name
  - Date of birth
  - Gender
  - Ethnic group
  - Occupation/profession/Job title (ONS classification)

- Contact Information:
  - Area of residence
  - First line of address
  - Postcode
  - Contact mobile number
  - Contact email address

- Health information:
  - Covid-19 Test Result (select from positive, negative or void)
• Information about the Covid-19 test you have taken
  - Test kit ID number
  - Date test taken

• Other:
  - Name or postcode of the HEI
  - Reason for taking the test

The following personal data will be collected from other sources:

• Community Health Index (CHI) number – where this is not provided by you, NHS NSS may need to match your details with the CHI database for the positive tests based on the information kept by NHS NSS. This is necessary to ensure that your records are accurate and kept updated.

In the event of a positive LFD test you should book a PCR test to confirm the results. The involved parties in the PCR process will provide you with information about the processing of your personal data in this case.

What happens if I choose not to provide the personal data requested?

This privacy notice covers the LFD Covid-19 testing of staff and students in HEIs for rapid identification of asymptomatic positive cases to reduce onward transmission within HEIs. This testing programme, alongside other protective measures such as physical distancing and handwashing, helps reduce the risks of coronavirus in education settings.

Staff and student participation in LFD testing is voluntary. It is the responsibility of the participating HEIs to ensure that they obtain the appropriate and valid consent, which for LFD Collect may be implied consent. People who decline to participate in twice-weekly testing may still attend the HEI, provided they continue to follow national guidance on symptomatic testing and self-isolation.

In order to submit the LFD data to the LFD portal, you will need to provide personal data.

What is the lawful basis for collecting, storing and using my data?

The legal basis for each of the organisation involved to processing your personal data or making decision about it are:

Necessary for scientific research or statistical purposes in the public interest (UK GDPR Art 9(2)(j))

UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Article 6(1)(e) (lawful basis to permit the processing of personal data) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authorities vested in the data controllers.

UK GDPR Article 9(2)(h) (lawful basis to permit the processing of special category data) processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services.

UK GDPR Article 9(2)(i) (lawful basis to permit the processing of special category data) processing is necessary for reasons of public interest in the area of public health, such as protecting against serious cross-border threats to health.

UK GDPR Article 9(2)(j) (lawful basis to permit the processing of special category data) processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, or scientific and historical research purposes.

UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Article 6(1)(e) (lawful basis to permit the processing of personal data) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authorities vested in the data controllers.

UK GDPR Article 9(2)(j) (lawful basis to permit the processing of special category data) processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, or scientific and historical research purposes.

DHSC’s legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- GDPR Article 6(1)(e) – the processing is necessary for the performance of its official tasks carried out in the public interest in providing and managing a health service
Other organisations involved in processing your data (such as NHS Digital) will be doing so either with an agreement in place with the data controllers (e.g. DHSC) to provide that service, or with a legal basis of their own).

The processing of personal data covered in this policy also adheres to Schedule 1 of the UK Data Protection Act 2018. In particular, the applied conditions under Schedule 1 are:

Condition 2 - Health or social care purposes

Condition 3 - Public health

Condition 4 - Research etc

Condition 6 - Statutory etc and government purposes

How will my personal data be shared?

Your personal data will only be shared with specific parties as part of this processing and on a need-to-know basis. Where special categories of personal data are shared, this is subject to suitable and specific measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms.

The HEI will not share consent data with any other party.

NHS NSS and PHS may share your personal data with:

- Your local Health Boards to carry out their public health duties
- The GP of the person who tested positive
- NHS Test and Protect service who undertake contact tracing to initiate contact tracing for positive cases
- Other parties of the health and care system for monitoring and planning actions in response to COVID-19

Where positive tests become part of the medical records of the tested person, parties authorised to access your medical records will also have access to this information.

Information about Covid-19 LFD tests may be provided to the Scottish Government in an aggregated and anonymised format for the evaluation of the effectiveness of this testing, including operational performance, clinical and public health effectiveness.

Your HEI may need to access information about your LFD for certain purposes (e.g. stock management and incident reporting about the quality or safety of testing). Information submitted to the self-test digital journey portal is not shared with your HEI and you may have to provide this information directly to these organisations. Your HEI should provide necessary contact details for reporting the information to all participants.

How long will my personal data be kept?

- The test information processed by NHS Scotland is kept for as long as is required to provide you with direct care and to support NHS Scotland initiatives to fight COVID-19. Information held for direct care purposes is stored in line with the Scottish Government Health and Social Care Records Management Code of Practice 2020. This means such information will be held for up to 7 years before it is deleted.

- When positive test results are added to your personal medical records, this will be retained on these records for your lifetime.

- Data on consent will be kept either in line with the HEI’s policy, or for a maximum of 7 years and a minimum of the duration of the testing activity.

- The information processed by DHSC will be kept in line with their privacy notice, for up to 8 years, in accordance with the Records Management Code of Practice for Health and Social Care 2016.

Where is my personal data stored?

Your data will be stored securely within the United Kingdom and safely accessed by authorised parties. We will not share your personal data outside the United Kingdom.

Is my personal data kept private and secure?

We have legal duties to keep information about you confidential. Strict rules apply to keep your information safe and comply with the Data Protection Act 2018, UK GDPR and organisational Data Protection policies. Appropriate technical and organisational measures are used to keep your data safe, including adherence to the NHS Scotland Information Security Policy framework, PHS/NSS Corporate Information Security Policies, PHS/NSS Information Security Acceptable Use Policy, NHSS Information Security and Cyber Security incident reporting and management processes and information governance training.

What Are My Rights?

Under the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018, you have the following rights:

1. The right to be informed.
2. The right of access.
3. The right to rectification.
4. The right to erasure.
5. The right to restriction of processing.
6. The right to data portability.
7. The right to object.
8. Rights in relation to automated decision-making.
9. The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory body.
