

University of Glasgow

University of Glasgow African & Caribbean Excellence Partners Award

The University of Glasgow is offering up to 10 full tuition fee waiver scholarships for Masters programmes starting in September 2022 exclusively for students or staff at our partner institutions in Africa and the Caribbean. Applicants for the partners award must be supported by a nomination from a member of staff at the partner institution.

Please complete the form below and return to your applicant to upload as part of their application.

Applicant Details

First Name
Last Name
Application Number
Student ID Number
Programme applied for
Relationship to Nominee

Nominator Details

First Name
Last Name
Job Title
Institution name
Contact email
Relationship to Nominee:

Are you currently involved in partnership activity with the University of Glasgow?

Yes No

If yes, please provide a brief outline of this activity and your key contact at the University of Glasgow
(max 500 words)

Nomination

Please provide details of why you are nominating the applicant for the University of Glasgow African & Caribbean Excellence Partners Award: (max 500 words)

Will the opportunity for the nominee to undertake a Masters at the University of Glasgow help further develop the partnership between the University and your Institution?

Yes

No

If yes, please outline how you think this will be achieved: (max 500 words)

If you have any questions, please contact us at student.recruitment@glasgow.ac.uk