'My CATHOLIC School' National Poetry Competition for Catholic Schools

The St Andrew's Foundation will have access to children's personal information (Name/Class/School) to allow us to process their entry for the 'My CATHOLIC School' National Poetry Competition.

When the St Andrew's Foundation processes children's data for the competition, it is doing so under the basis of GDPR Article 6(1)(e)—processing is necessary for the performance of a public task.

Only winners' and runners up information and data may be shared with the press and published on our Blog, social media pages and website. The personal data of winners and runners up will be kept in perpetuity as this information will feature on our Blog, website and on social media pages. Website pages are kept for archive purposes. All unsuccessful entrants' data will be deleted as soon as the competition ends.
