

University of Glasgow

Summary of Key Changes for 2022-23 Edition of the University Regulations

Please note that the provisions in the new edition of the University Regulations apply to all students. An exception to this rule is that continuing students will be governed by the degree regulations in place in the year of first registration on their current programme of study. (For Honours students, this means the year in which they commenced their Honours programme.)

While there have been no substantive changes to the regulations, references to the Senate Office that feature in the regulations have been altered to reflect a revised structure that will be in place ahead of the new academic year 2022-23. The Senate and Academic Collaborations Offices will merge to form a new unit: Academic Policy & Governance. This will be led by Helen Butcher and will remain within the Academic Services Division. In addition to this change, the Student Conduct Team will be relocated to a new area of Academic Services – Student Administration & Learning Development and will function within that as a self-contained unit.

Revised webpages reflecting these changes will be published in early September.

If you have any queries regarding the University Regulations please contact Helen Butcher (Helen.Butcher@glasgow.ac.uk) or Ruth Cole (Ruth.Cole@glasgow.ac.uk) in Academic Policy & Governance.

August 2022