

SEMINAR SERIES 2021/2022

SEMESTER 1

Tuesday 28 September 2021

Brittnee Leysen, Viki Marker, Alasdair Whyte

Film Premiere: Air fhògair is air fhalbhan (Exiles and Vagabonds)

5 October 2021

Online welcome event (GU staff/students)

19 October 2021

Ged O'Brien

Rewriting Football History from the Ground Up

2 November 2021

Rody Gorman

Representing the People? Disenchantment and democracy in Scottish politics during the 1960s and 1970s

9 November 2021

Kevin Gallagher

The Poet, the Unprincipled Prostitute and the Perjured Blockhead

23 November 2021

Andrew Mackillop (author), with special guests Stephen Mullen and Corinne Fowler

Book Launch: Human Capital and Empire:

Scotland, Ireland, Wales and British Imperialism in Asia, c.1690-c.1820

*

SEMESTER 2

11 January 2022

Máire Ni Mhaonaigh

Ordering History and Chronicling the Past: A Medieval Irish Approach

1 February 2022

David Alston

[with the Benina Centre for Slavery Studies]

Slaves and Highlanders: Silenced Histories of Scotland and the Caribbean

8 February 2022

Rhys Kaminski-Jones

'A real picture of the old Britons'?:

Eighteenth-century Welsh Receptions of 'North American 'Indians'

29 March 2022

The Annual John Durkan Memorial Lecture

Alasdair A. Macdonald

'You gave me rules, I give you rhymes again':

Scottish poets and the Union of the Crowns

*