

Key Institutional Level Contacts

First Point of Contact

Depending on the nature of the proposed collaboration, your first point of contact should be as follows:

Internationalisation Deans	Contact Alison Coe Internationalisation Officer, Recruitment and International Office
Information on Internationalisation Strategy, Priorities and International Partnership Funding	Dr Chris Yeomans Deputy Director (International Affairs), and Alison Coe Internationalisation Officer, Recruitment and International Office
Student Exchange and Study Abroad	Colette McGowan Recruitment and International Office
Development of Transnational Education provision and the associated quality and standards issues	Wendy Muir Senate Office
Other Academic Collaborations	Jackie McCluskey Collaborations Unit, Senate Office

Memoranda of Understanding	Relevant International Officer
Visiting Researcher (Joint Supervision) and 'Research Furth of Glasgow' arrangements	Postgraduate Research Service
Research Collaborations	Research and Enterprise
Registration and Certification	Registry
Guidance on issues relating to student support (particularly in TNE arrangements)	Director of Student Services
Guidance with Business Model and Tax implications	Relevant Head of Finance
Guidance on potential insurance implications	Ian Thomson , Insurance and Risk Manager
Guidance on staff exchanges or other potential staffing implications	Relevant Human Resources Manager
Learning Technology Support	Kerr Gardiner , Head of Learning and Technology Unit
U21 Co-ordinator	Sarah Ward Recruitment and International Office
HR Internationalisation Lead	Christine Barr
Staff Development	Wendy McAnerney and June Cullen

Other Key Contacts

In addition to the contacts listed above, a number of key people can also provide you with guidance and support with your development.

Senior Managers

Professor Andrea Nolan, Senior Vice Principal and Deputy Vice-Chancellor. Professor Nolan has strategic responsibility for partnership development as part of the overall Internationalisation Strategy

Professor Frank Coton, Vice-Principal (Learning and Teaching)

Professor Steve Beaumont, Vice-Principal (Research and Enterprise)

Director of International Office and Head of Student Recruitment (Vacancy)

Dr Jack Aitken, Director of the Senate Office

International Deans

International Deans (formerly Regional Champions) have been appointed to lead the development of regional plans which will ensure the implementation of the University's International Strategy in the various regional contexts. Their regional plans encompass: student recruitment; collaborative provision and partnership building; research links; alumni networking, reputation building and other related activities.

The International Deans have established Regional Working Groups which act as a source of advice for staff in such areas as academic business development; identification of potential strategic partnerships with targeted institutions and they help to facilitate the activities which build the profile of the University in their region.

Africa

Professor John Briggs

The Americas

Professor David R Fearn

East Asia
Professor Jon Cooper

Europe
Professor James Conroy

South East Asia
Professor Andrea Nolan

Eurasia and South Asia
Professor Vivienne Baumfield

Middle East
Professor Steve Beaumont

International Officers

International Officers, based in RIO, have been appointed to support the international developments in each region as follows:

Europe
Ian Thomson
Head of International Office

Will Wadman
International Officer

The Americas
Rory McDiarmid
Senior International Officer

Leann Schmitz
International Officer (US Based)

East Asia and South-East Asia
Naomi Allum
Deputy Head of International Office and
Senior International Officer

Annie McLaughlin
International Officer

	Andrew Zhou International Officer (In-country)
	Eurasia and South Asia and Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) Caroline Boddie Senior International Officer Adina Timofei International Officer
	Middle East and Africa Helen-Marie Clayton Senior International Officer Helen Templar International Officer

RIO also manages the University's arrangements with Agents based in-country. In addition to providing support with recruitment, the University's Agents are also able to facilitate an introduction to potential partner institutions. For more information you can contact the relevant International Officer.

Last updated: 5 October 2012