

University of Glasgow

Security and an Independent Scotland International Lecture Series

The Glasgow Global Security Network is delighted to welcome five leading scholars and strategic commentators to speak on the possible security and economic implications of Scottish independence for the people of Scotland, the UK and the wider world.

Entry is free. Doors open 4.45pm refreshments will be served - Lecture commences 5.15pm – 7.00pm

27th November 2012	International Reactions to Scottish Independence Professor William Walker (St Andrew's University)	Wolfson Building Room 248
22nd January 2013	Scottish Independence and Critical International Legal Issues Ambassador David Scheffer (Northwestern University)	Gilbert Scott Building Senate Room
21st February 2013	The Economic Challenges Facing an Independent Scotland Professor John Kay (Financial Times Columnist and Visiting Fellow at London School of Economics)	Gilbert Scott Building Hunter Halls
21st March 2013	Scottish Independence and the Question of Transatlantic and European Security Ms Hajnalka Vincze (Independent Security Analyst)	Gilbert Scott Building Senate Room
23rd May 2013	Scottish Independence? Lessons Learned by a Recently Independent State in Europe Professor Ivo Samson (Slovak Foreign Policy Association)	Wolfson Building Room 248

Contact: Dr Phillips O'Brien
Telephone: (0)141 330 6115 Email: phillips.obrien@glasgow.ac.uk
Visit: <http://www.gla.ac.uk/research/az/globalsecurity/publicevents/>

To register (optional) to attend the lectures please go to: <http://globalsecurity.eventbrite.com/>

University of Glasgow, charity number SC004401

Supported by: