

University of Glasgow

ASMI

ASSOCIATION FOR THE
STUDY OF MODERN ITALY

SOCIETY, CULTURE AND CONFLICT IN 20TH-CENTURY ITALY:

CURRENT RESEARCH IN SCOTLAND AND NORTH ENGLAND

UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW, 30 MAY 2014

Workshop organised on occasion of the inauguration of the library collection generously donated by Profs. Judy Hellman and Steve Hellman to the University of Glasgow Library, and presenting some of the latest research on 20th-century Italian politics, society and culture.

For detail on the collection, see provisionally:

<http://universityofglasgowlibrary.wordpress.com/2013/11/29/major-donation-to-italian-history-collections/>

For further details and registration, please contact:

Dr Maud Anne Bracke, School of Humanities, University of Glasgow

Maud.bracke@glasgow.ac.uk, 0141 330 5098

Attendance at the workshop is free, but please register by 1 May 2014.

Generously sponsored by the Chancellor's Fund and the History Subject at the University of Glasgow and the Association for the Study of Modern Italy (www.asmi.org.uk)

Organised in collaboration with the Research Network on Southern Europe, University of Glasgow

Location: University of Glasgow, Adam Smith Building, Room 916, Glasgow G12 8RT.

http://www.gla.ac.uk/media/media_1887_en.pdf

PROGRAMME

9.30: Registration

10am: Welcome (Prof. Anton Muscatelli, Principal)

10.10: Presentation of the collection (Dr. Maud Bracke)

Communism and the left

10.40: MORNING KEYNOTE: 'On Babies and Bathwater: Maybe the Mass Party Wasn't Quite So Awful After All', Prof. Steve Hellman, York University Toronto

11.00: 'Leonardo Sciascia's 'mala azione': Il contesto, Todo modo and 1970s Italian Politics', Prof. Jo Farrell, University of Strathclyde

11.20: Discussion, chaired by Dr. Gianluca Fantoni (Strathclyde / Nottingham Trent)

11.50: Coffee break

Protest and social mobilisation

12.20: 'After the flood: The political legacy of the Florence alluvione of November 1966', Prof. Phil Cooke, University of Strathclyde

12.40: 'Marching with the cross and the pitchfork: The protest of the peasant 'White Leagues' against the First World War in Italy', Dr. Claudia Baldoli, University of Newcastle

13.00: Discussion, chaired by Dr. Andrea Hayek (Glasgow)

13.30: Lunch

Women's movements

14.30: AFTERNOON KEYNOTE 'Challenges in the Study of Italian Women's Movements', Prof. Judy Hellman, York University Toronto

14.50: 'Feminism and the challenge to patriarchy: Italy in the long 1970s', Dr. Maud Bracke, University of Glasgow

15.10: Discussion, chaired by Dr. Pamela Schievenin (Queen Mary / Glasgow)

15.40 Coffee break

Migration

16.10: 'Commemorating the arrival of Albanian migrants in Bari, August 1991', Prof. Derek Duncan, University of St Andrews

16.30: Discussion, chaired by Dr. Katharine Mitchell (Strathclyde)

16.50 to 17.30: Future plans