

The Western Infirmary Lecture Theatre (WILT) is on the University's Gilmorehill Campus, situated between University Avenue and Argyle Street, near Byres Road.

There are two ways into WILT – via Argyle Street or University Place.

Arriving from University Avenue or Byres Road – turn into University Place, the entrance to WILT is in the middle and looks like this. Follow the path a short way and WILT is on the left hand side.

Figure 1: entrance to WILT from University Place

Arriving from Argyle Street – Enter the Western Infirmary by the hospital road (see below), NOT the narrow road leading to the university as this has a fence which you will not be able to pass until you reach the top. Go round the hospital building, you can walk either to the left or the right as both will take you to the same place as the venue is behind the hospital building. Cross the small car park and WILT is on the right hand side.

Figure 2: entrance to WILT from Argyle Street