1. Windows 10 has a Hybrid start button
   Clicking on the start button will bring up the start pane.

   !Windows start button
   !Windows 10 start pane
   Right clicking on the start button will bring up the “old” style control panel

   !Windows 10 right click start button

2. The all program icon has become the All Apps Icon
   If you cannot find what you are looking for, search for it! Use the search box on the task-bar, or press the Windows logo key on your keyboard and start typing.

   !All apps icon
3. Windows 10 features a new start panel with “Tiled” Shortcuts

4. You can find additional available applications from the software centre via an icon on your desktop

5. You can log out of Windows 10 using a variety of methods

1. Start Button -> Power -> options
2. Right click Start button -> Shut down or sign out -> options

3. Start button -> User name icon -> options