The composition of the appointing panel will be nominated by the Head of School/RI/Service or appropriate recruiting manager. This information must be included in the Hiring Manager Vacancy Checklist in order for the recruitment process for the vacancy to begin. All members including a Convener should be identified at this stage*

The role of the Convener is to:
- ensure fairness and equality for all candidates
- assign areas to be covered by each panel member
- greet the candidate and introduce him/her to all the members of the panel
- direct the questioning and ensure continuity
- manage the interview process especially in relation to time management
- record initial scores
- vote where consensus cannot be reached
- record final decision
- ensure a decision is made concerning probation for academic appointments (as appropriate).

When appointing the Committee consideration should be given to the following:
1. The appointment committee's gender balance should reflect the gender representation of the subject specialism and at a minimum there should be at least one person of each sex represented

2. Any member of an Appointing Committee should declare any conflicts of interest to the Convener; (if unsure please discuss with your Recruitment Assistant or College HR Manager)

3. Appointing Committee members cannot act as referees for candidates being interviewed

4. Training in Recruitment and Selection is mandatory

5. Careful consideration should be given to take account of principles of Equality and Diversity.

*When an external panel member is required, this can be noted on the checklist as 'external panel member' to allow the vacancy to progress whilst the individual is identified.
