Radboud University and the University of Glasgow have identified each other as strategic partners to foster deep collaborations in research and education. The Radboud - Glasgow Collaboration Fund has been established to facilitate and support joint initiatives that will strengthen the two universities’ strategic priorities, through innovative education as well as multi-disciplinary cutting-edge research to create academic and societal impact.

The Radboud - Glasgow Collaboration Fund encourages proposals for one-year collaboration projects in the areas of research and learning & teaching (education) as well as opportunities for short term mobility visits.

This Guide for Applicants provides information about the application procedure and the selection criteria for Research and Learning & Teaching projects.
Research and Learning & Teaching (Education) Projects

Colleagues are encouraged to submit funding applications for project proposals supporting collaborative research between Radboud and Glasgow as well as proposals for innovative learning and teaching initiatives such as dual degrees, jointly taught modules etc.

Applicants must demonstrate that their projects have an added value for the cooperation between Radboud University and University of Glasgow and are relevant, innovative and of high quality. Furthermore, the project proposed should be sustainable in the long-term, preferably including a plan for engagement and outlining opportunities for leveraging external funding.

Each successful project will be awarded funding for one year with the possibility of a second year of funding, subject to a new application being submitted.

The terminology used for the purposes of this fund is Project Leader which should be understood as either the Principal Investigator in research projects or Collaboration Lead for learning & teaching (education) projects.

The maximum budget for projects is £20,000 per year, total. This funding is for the project overall and does not need to be distributed evenly between the partners.

1. Eligibility
   1.1. Proposals are invited from academic or professional staff from all disciplines at Radboud and Glasgow and their affiliated Research Centres and Institutes.

   1.2. Project Leads from must have an active contract of employment with one of the partner institutions (appointed at least 0.5 FTE). If on a fixed term contract, the end date must be beyond the funding period.

   1.3. Higher Degree Research students, post-docs, and research assistants/associates are not eligible to apply as Project Leads but are welcome to join the applications as collaborators.

2. Duration

Funding is available for 12 months from the project start date. This can be extended for Learning and Teaching proposals where necessary.

5.7 Late applications will not be considered.

6. Selection Criteria
Project proposals will be selected for funding according to the following criteria.

Primary criteria
- Added value
  How does the proposal have a positive impact on both universities? Does the proposal deliver research impact? Does the proposed activity lead to further funding opportunities? Does the proposal have the potential to improve the quality of research and L&T? Does the project increase access to research facilities? Does the project improve the student experience?

- Relevance
  Is the proposal innovative? Does the proposal potentially have important academic or societal impact (e.g. links to industry)? Does the proposal demonstrate a global outlook and intercultural awareness? Does the content of the proposed project show excellence? Does the project enhance innovative pedagogic approaches or new learning opportunities and experiences?

Secondary criteria
- Feasibility
  Is the project timeline clear and realistic? Are the project deliverables described in a clear and measurable way? Is the budget cost-effective and appropriate for the proposed activity? Will the project feasibly deliver what it promises?

- Sustainability
  Does the project proposal demonstrate a clear long-term ambition? Is it clear how the project results will be of value after the funding period? Is the strategy for communicating and implementing the project results convincing? Will the resulting objectives be financially sustainable?

7. Approval Process
The Joint Board of the Radboud-Glasgow Collaboration Fund will select the successful projects and reserves final authority over the selection of projects. The joint board is formed by representatives of both universities.

8. Notification of Application Outcomes
All applicants will be notified of the outcome by Thursday 18th April 2019. Those who are successful, will also receive details of how to accept the award and access funding.
9. Change of Project Lead

Applicants should contact the Program Coordinator at each institution in case of change of a project lead. Such changes will need to be approved and documented.

10. Financial and Reporting Obligations

10.1 The funding should only be used for the approved project and in accordance with the proposal and the budget plan. It must not be used for any other purposes and prior approval is needed for any variation in the budget items. Request for variations from original proposals must be submitted to both universities.

10.2 The funding will be paid to the Department/School/Business Unit of the applicant. Project Leaders should contact their relevant Department/School/Business Unit directly for details on how this funding can be accessed. Awardees should adhere to the purchasing guidelines of the respective universities.

10.3 Grants not spent by the project end date must be returned.

10.4 Recipients will be required to submit a final report by 1st November 2020. Recipients who fail to submit a final report will not be eligible to submit future applications.
