Buchanan Bus Station

Traveline Scotland- 0871 200 2233

Buchanan Bus Station is located in the city centre. A number of local buses run to the west end where the University of Glasgow is situated. First Bus 4 and 4A are best for University Avenue. You can check with the Bus Station for further information on travelling via Buchanan Bus Station. The main bus operator in Glasgow is 'First Bus' and you can find out about routes, times and fares from them via <http://www.firstgroup.com/greater-glasgow> or by telephone 0141 420 7600. Please note if you are getting local buses you may need the exact fare as no change is given on most services. You can also get a taxi from Buchanan Bus Station to the University. For more information on taxis see <http://www.glasgowtaxis.co.uk/>.

Central Station & Queen Street Station (National Rail- 03457 48 49 50)

If you are travelling to Glasgow by train, your train will probably terminate at one of these stations. You can travel on to the University from the city centre by bus or you may prefer to take the Glasgow Subway to Hillhead. The closest Subway station for Central Station is St Enoch and the most convenient station for Queen Street Station is Buchanan Street. Alternatively, you can travel by taxi from either train stations. <http://www.glasgowtaxis.co.uk> taxi ranks are located at train and bus stations.

Subway

For more information on Glasgow's Subway, see <http://www.spt.co.uk/subway/>.

M8 Motorway

From Carlisle, Newcastle and the south, exit M74 on to the M73, joining the M8 at the Old Monkland junction. M8 exits for the University are J18 if travelling from the south, Edinburgh and the north and J19 if coming from Glasgow Airport and the west. Other main routes serving the University include Great Western Road (A82, north of campus), Clydeside Expressway (A814, south) and Byres Road (B808, west). Car parking on the University campus and surrounding area is extremely difficult.
