8. Programme Aims:

The programme aims are:

- To provide an intellectual training through the in depth study of Scots Law in its theoretical, historical, social, European and international context.
- To establish a learning environment in which the frameworks, underlying principles, values, and contexts in which Scots Law operates can be explored thoroughly and analytically, and in which application skills can be developed.

¹ This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if full advantage is taken of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the learning outcomes, content and teaching, learning and assessment methods of each course can be found in course handbooks and other programme documentation and online at www.gla.ac.uk

The accuracy of the information in this document is reviewed periodically by the University and may be checked by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education.

- Through the provision of flexible opportunities for the acquisition of a broad range of professional, transferable, and subject-based skills, to offer preparation for employment within a range of professions both legal and non-legal.
